HOUSE BILL No. 1188

A BILL FOR AN ACT concerning state offices and administration.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1 SECTION 1. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005] (a) As used in this
2 SECTION, "board or commission" refers to the following:

3 (1) An entity identified in subsection (i).

4 (2) A board, commission, committee, or other similar entity
5 statutorily created by the general assembly.

6 (b) As used in this SECTION, "legislative commission" includes
7 any statutorily created board, committee, or commission that
8 meets one (1) or more of the following criteria:

9 (1) The chairman of the board, committee, or commission
10 must:

11 (A) be a member of the general assembly; or

12 (B) be appointed by the speaker of the house of 13 representatives, the president pro tempore of the senate, or 14 the chairman or vice chairman of the legislative council.

15 (2) A majority of the members of the board, committee, or 16 commission must be members of the general assembly.

17 (3) The legislative services agency is directed by statute to 18 serve as staff to the board, committee, or commission.

(4) The board, committee, or commission is made up of standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate.

The term does not include any standing committee, caucus, or interim committee if the interim committee is created by a resolution of the legislative council.

(c) As used in this SECTION, the "moratorium period" begins July 1, 2005, and ends June 30, 2006.

(d) This SECTION applies notwithstanding any other law, including any laws enacted in the 2005 session of the general assembly.

(e) Except as provided by subsections (f) and (g), a board or commission may not do any of the following during the moratorium period:

- (1) Receive, encumber, or spend any appropriations, allotments, or other funds from the state treasury.
- (2) Conduct a meeting or otherwise take official action.
- (3) Employ or contract for the services of any person.

(f) This subsection applies to a legislative commission. A legislative commission may be exempted from all or part of the restrictions in subsection (e) if all of the following apply:

- (1) The chairman and vice chairman of the legislative council agree to the written terms of the full or partial exemption.
- (2) The chairman and vice chairman of the legislative council find that at least one (1) of the following conditions applies with respect to the legislative commission:

(A) The health or safety of the public could be jeopardized if the legislative commission does not operate during the moratorium.

(B) A federal mandate or other federal requirement necessitates the continued operation of the commission during the moratorium.

(C) The operation of the commission during the moratorium period is critical for the efficient and orderly conduct of the 2006 regular session of the general assembly.

(g) This subsection applies to a board or commission that is not a legislative commission. A board or commission may be exempted from all or part of the restrictions in subsection (e) if all the following apply:

- (1) The governor, by executive order, provides written terms of the full or partial exemption.

(2) The governor finds that at least one (1) of the following conditions applies with respect to the board or commission:

(A) The health or safety of the public could be jeopardized if the board or commission does not operate during the moratorium.

(B) A federal mandate or other federal requirement necessitates the continued operation of the board or commission during the moratorium.

(C) A constitutional right to appeal a decision of state or local government necessitates the operation of the board or commission during the moratorium.

(D) The operation of the board or commission during the moratorium period is critical for the efficient and orderly conduct of state or local government.

(h) The governor, before November 1, 2006, shall submit recommendations to the legislative council concerning continuation, combination, restructuring, or repeal of the boards and commissions. The recommendations shall include an estimate of any savings realized by state or local government as a result of the moratorium.
